

Recommendations for the Use of the Data Holder Rights Exercise Form

The reason for including this form (see page 2) is aimed at improving communication and assisting in the execution of the request for the exercise of rights as established in the new General Data Protection Regulations (RGPD) and it is recommended by the AEPD. PADEL NUESTRO (PN) presents the following form to exercise the right of Rectification. We should inform you that the data that has been stored from you derived from the forms or communications established for this purpose, will be blocked in order to be able to prove the management and maintenance of the same (data / documents) for a period of 5 years.

The Right of Rectification is one of the rights that the Organic Law of Protection of Personal Data (LOPD) recognizes to the citizens so that they can defend their privacy controlling for themselves the use made of their personal data, and in particular , the right to change them when they are inaccurate or incomplete. Its exercise is very personal, so it can only be requested by the interested person, who should contact the company or public body that knows or presumes that has their data, indicating what data is being referred and the correction that is requested, and contributing to the the documentation that justifies it.

The person in charge of the file must resolve on the request within a maximum period of ten days from the reception of the request. You must also do so even if you do not have data of the affected party. After the deadline without expressly responding to the request or it is unsatisfactory, the interested party may file the corresponding claim for protection before the Agency.
